

What Went Well

- Stayed focused and stuck to the plan laid out on my Jira Board, updating it as much as possible.
- Properly used the feature naming strategy for feature branches, making commits as often as possible with helpful commit messages.
- Made sure every new addition to the code was tested with at least 60-70% before pushing to remote repository.